Definition (Symmetric strict monoidal category)
A symmetric strict monoidal category is a strict monoidal category $\langle \mathbf{C}, \otimes, \mathbf{1} \rangle$ which is also a symmetric stacking category. This means that $\mathbf{C}$ is equipped with braidings which satisfy the conditions of naturality, compatibility with nesting, and symmetry.

$$\sigma_{X,Y} : X \otimes Y \to Y \otimes X$$