

Definition (Catalogue). A catalogue is a span in Pos. It thus consists of 3 posets I, F, R. We call them implementation space, functionality space, and requirements space, respectively. We need to define two maps prov : I \rightarrow F (an implementation provides a functionality) and req : I \rightarrow R (an implementation requires resources):

