

Definition (Injective function). Let $f : \mathbf{A} \rightarrow \mathbf{B}$ be a function. The function f is injective if, for all $x, x' \in \mathbf{A}$ holds: $f(x) = f(x') \implies x = x'$.