

Definition (Power set). Given any set A , we can form a new set whose elements are precisely the subsets of A . This new set is called the powerset of A , and we denote it by $\mathcal{P}A$.