

Definition (Injective function)

Let $f : \mathbf{A} \rightarrow \mathbf{B}$ be a function. The function f is injective if, for all $x, y \in \mathbf{A}$ holds:

$$\frac{f(x) = f(y)}{x = y}.$$