

Definition. A monotone design problem (DPP) is a tuple $\langle F, R, h \rangle$ such that F and R are CPOs, and $h : f \rightarrow \mathcal{A}R$ is a monotone and Scott-continuous function ([gierz03continuous] or [censi16codesign_sep16]).