

Definition (Injective function). Let  $f : \mathbf{A} \rightarrow \mathbf{B}$  be a function. The function  $f$  is injective if, for all  $x, x' \in \mathbf{A}$  holds:  $f(x) = f(x') \implies x = x'$ .