

$$\bullet \bullet \bullet ; \diamond = \bullet \bullet \bullet$$

The diagram consists of two identical sequences of three colored dots (two blue, one red) separated by a semicolon and a diamond symbol, followed by an equals sign. This represents an identity or a transformation in a diagrammatic calculus.