Definition (Identity morphism). Let S be a semigroup. The identity function $Id_S: S \rightarrow S$ is always a morphism of semigroups. We can easily check that ?? is satisfied:

We call this the identity morphism of S.