called a monoid isomorphism if there exists a homomorphism of monoids $g: \mathbb{N} \to \mathbb{R}$

Definition (Monoid isomorphism). A morphism of semigroups $f: \mathbf{M} \to \mathbf{N}$ is

M such that $f \circ g = \mathrm{id}_{\mathbf{M}}$ and $g \circ f = \mathrm{id}_{\mathbf{N}}$.