Definition. A monotone design problem (DP) is a tuple $\langle F, R, h \rangle$ such that F and R are CPOs, and $h: f \to AR$ is a monotone and Scott-continuous function ([gierz03continuous] or [censi16codesign_sep16]).