Definition (Monoid isomorphism). A morphism of monoids  $F: \mathbf{M} \to \mathbf{N}$  is called a monoid isomorphism if there is a morphism of monoids  $G: \mathbb{N} \to \mathbb{M}$  such that

 $F : G = \mathrm{Id}_{\mathbf{M}}$  and  $G : F = \mathrm{Id}_{\mathbf{N}}$ .